CAUSE

Supervision in this case commenced on November 9, 2005, when the offender was released from the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons. Nicklson was not released from prison via halfway house placement. Since then, the offender has been unemployed and without a legitimate source of personal income. Furthermore, he has struggled to secure a stable, permanent place of residence. Nicklson has been referred to several different agencies for employment and job readiness assistance, however he has not yet succeeded in obtaining gainful work or stable housing. Specifically, Nicklson has failed to follow through with a referral to the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) of the New Jersey Department of Labor (DOL) in Newark. On February 9, 2006, Nicklson failed to report to the probation officer as instructed for a scheduled drug test. Then, on February 16, 2006, the offender admitted that he failed to notify his probation officer within 72 hours of a change in residence. On March 16, 2006, the offender reported to the probation officer at a community-based location in Newark; after the probation officer detected an odor of alcohol on his breath, the offender admitted that he consumed beer before coming to the meeting. On May 12, 2006, at approximately 11:00 p.m., the offender was shot in the leg by an unknown individual in Newark. He was treated for his injury at University Hospital in Newark and was released on the following day. The Newark Police Department is currently investigating this incident.
